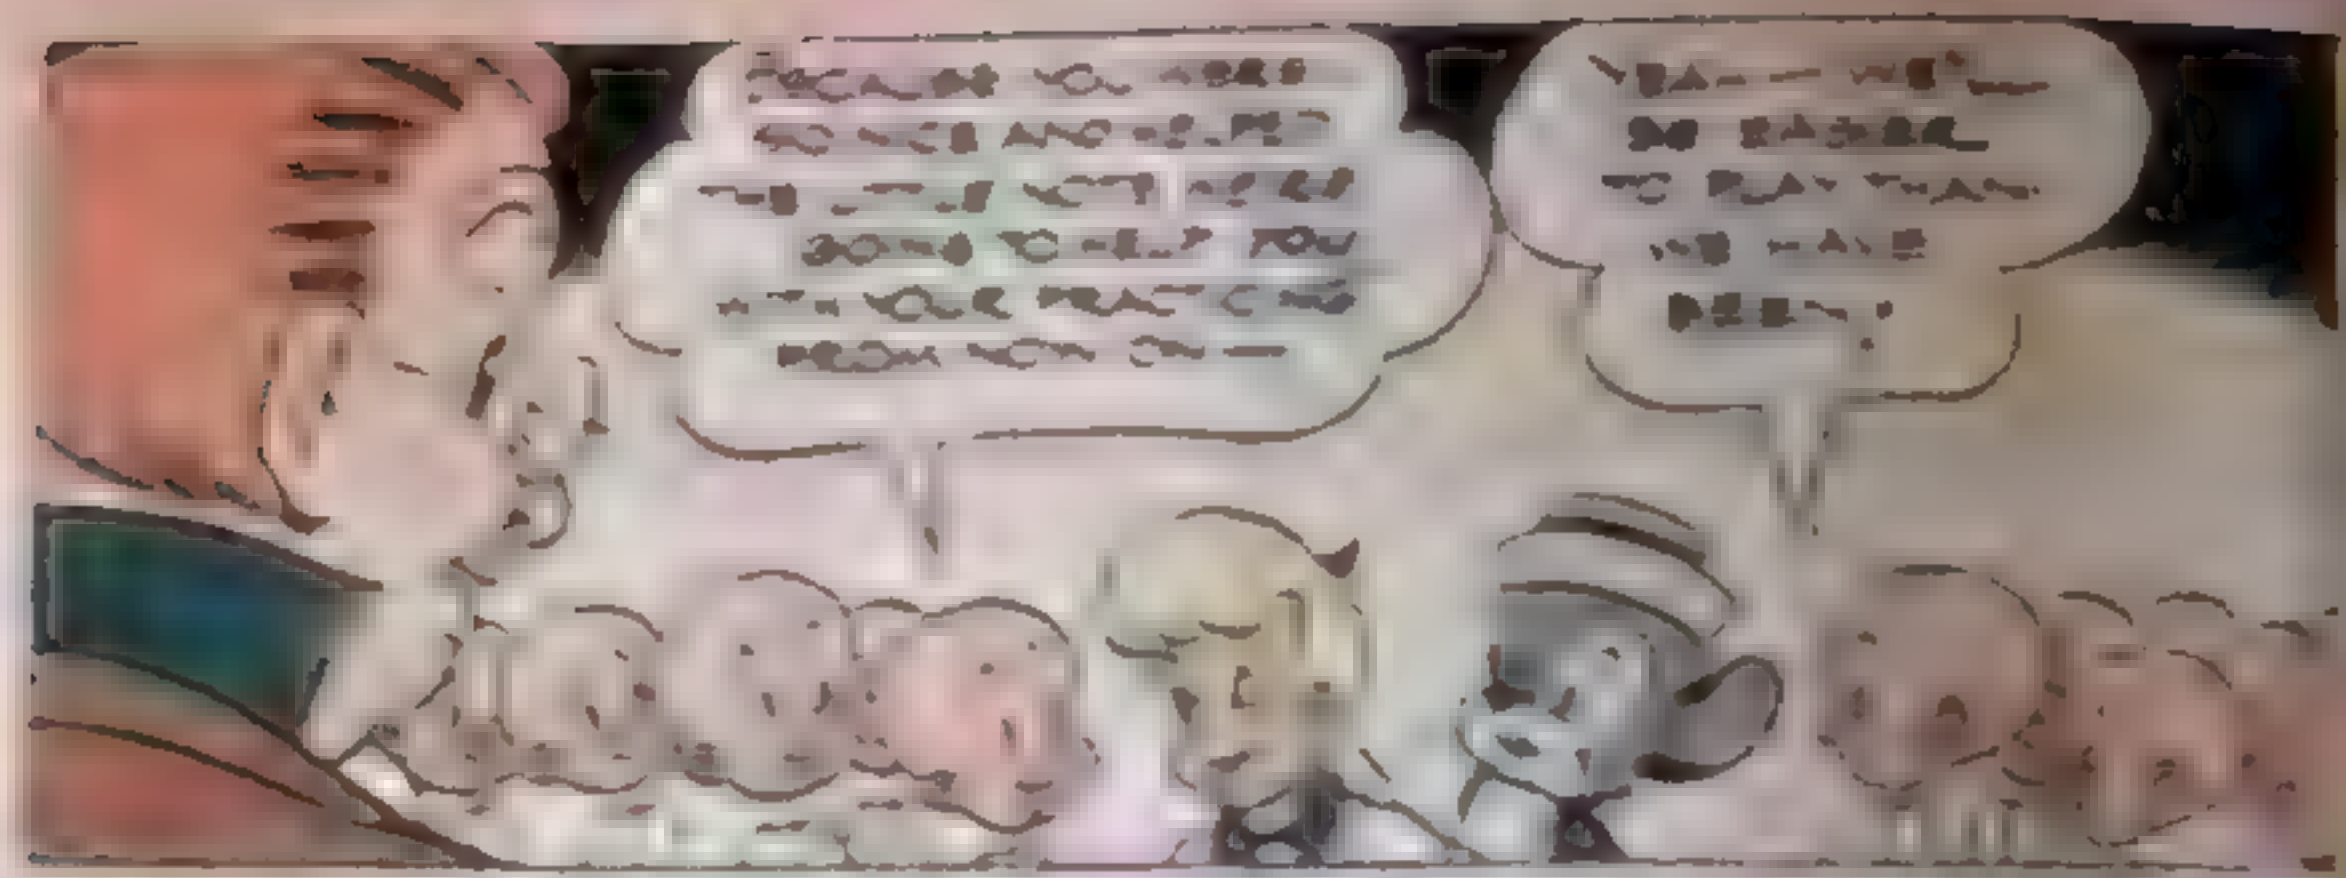
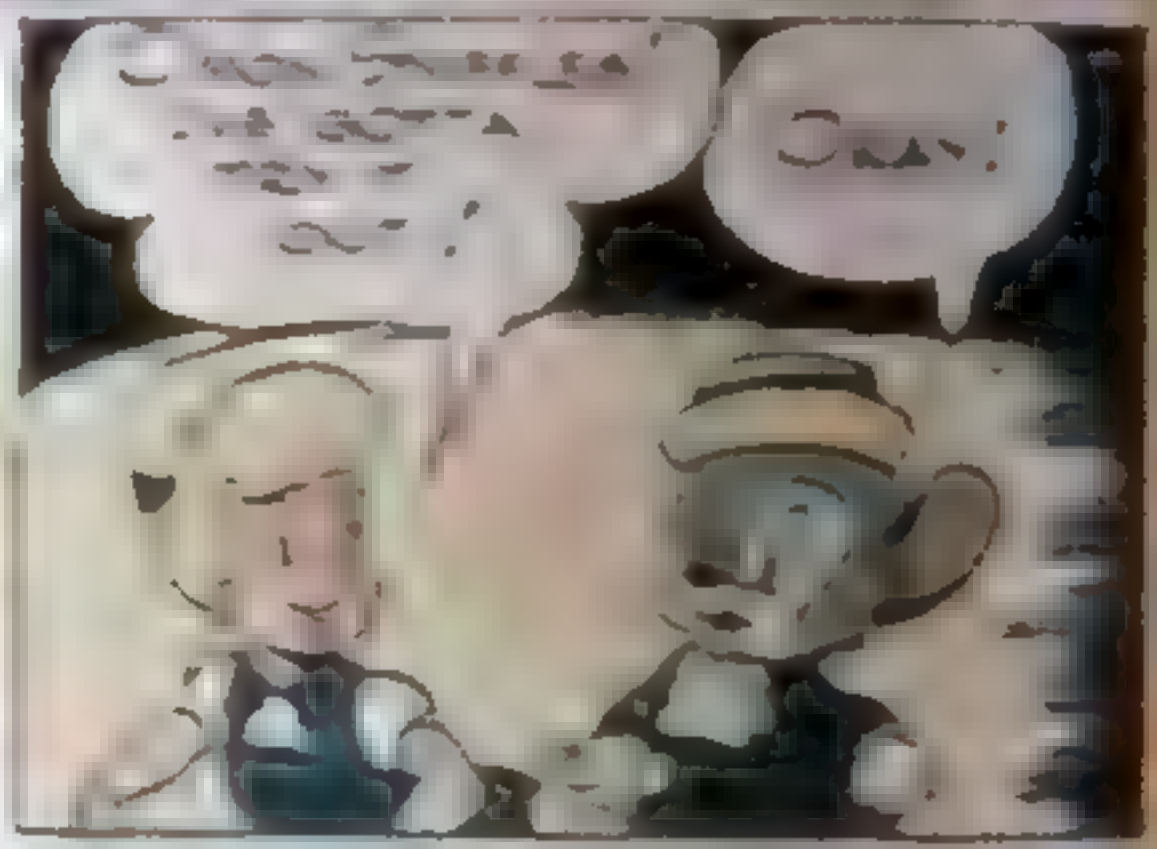
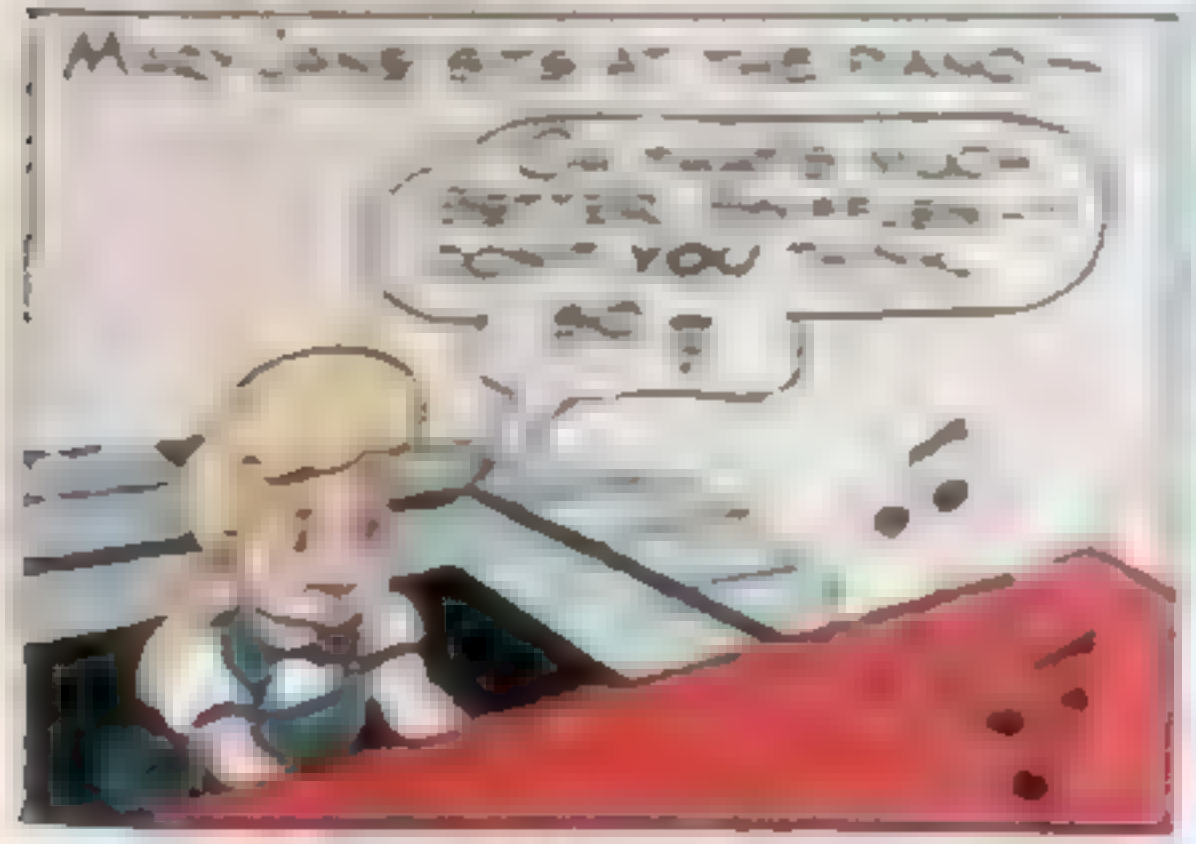
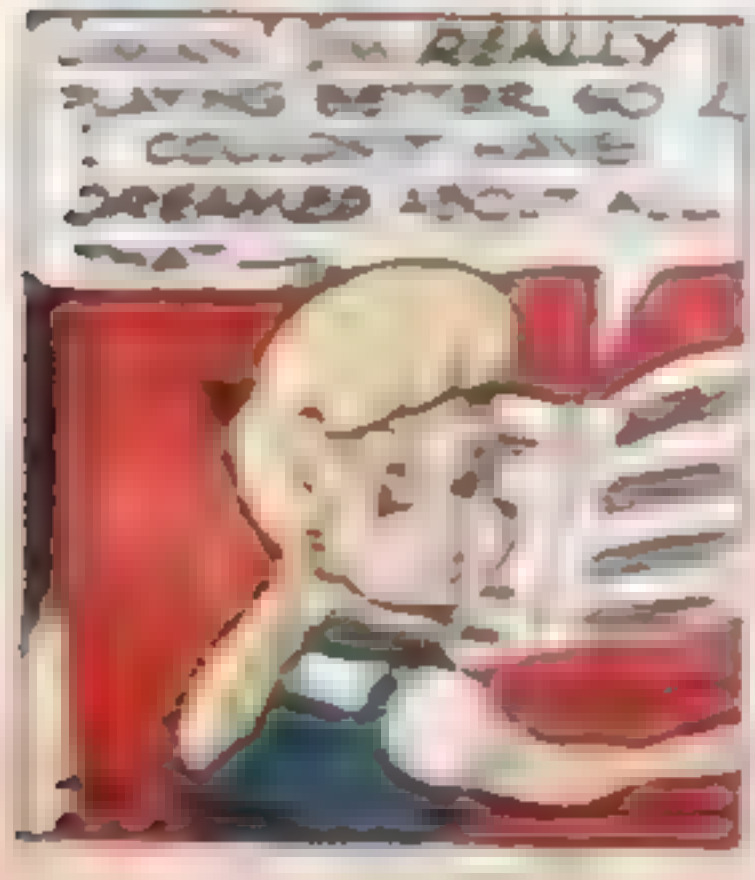
I HAVE NOTES FOR YOU, TOO, MARY JANE!!

AND NOW THE LAST OF THE NOTES HAVE A PLACE FOR YOU, MARY JANE!!









One Elmer had a dream one day
He went to bed to dream
He heard no peas or carrots grow
Upon his factory farm

He planted the seeds in every row
He watered it with care
He chased Bugs Bunny and the crows
Wherever they came there

One Elmer Bugs would call out
And start to climb his tree
Elmer cried helplessly
"Bugs Bunny get you home"

"Oh, say" said Bugs, "there's something up
I think you ought to come
Because I come the worse why
Your garden all was gone"

"You crow" cried Elmer in one line
If there's a reason please
Be good enough to make it clear
And don't be such a tease.

"I'm sorry" said Elmer "I'm very sorry
I'm very sorry indeed
Don't cry Bugs Bunny for CRICE
's sake
I'm really bright, see!

I planted the seeds in every row
I watered it with care
I chased Bugs Bunny for CRICE
's sake
For Victory in the war

I'll even help everyone I can Be a good home nursery aid"
Said Elmer "Confess me I've no
Regret
You surely have said how"

My answer was the planted corn
That on their roots grow
The plants grew up strong and
Before their very eyes

Then Elmer woke up from his dream,
While Bugs stood by and said,
"I did your garden chores today"
Waking Elmer back
